A prominent citizen and leader in politics threw us a bouquet the other day while in our store. "What a singularly neat store you have, everything so up to date, and you seem to carry nearly everything," he remarked.

It is all quite true our stock is new, fresh and up to date, and we do carry almost everything. Just try us and you will find we are quite correct in our assertion.

KNIGHTS OF PYTHIAS INSTALLATION AND BANQUET.

On the evening of the 27th of January fortythree Knights of Pythias assembled at the castle Hall of Aloha Lodge No. 3 Knights of Pythias to witness the installation of the officers of said lodge for the ensuing year.

Every lodge in the territory had one or more members present and three were there from California and one from far away Danville Indiana.

District deputy supreme chancellor E. B. Carley installed the officers and was assisted by members appointed for the purpose.

The lodge was brilliantly lighted with the new Acetylene gas plant and as a banquet was prepared to follow the lodge services the work was begun early.

The officers installed for the year were Hugh M. Coke C. C. W. S. Mountcastle.....V. C. Wm. Ault.....Prelate. E. C. Campbell.....K. R. & S. E. M. Keeney.....M. of W. L. M. Baldwin.....M. of F. Dan T. Cary.....M. of E. Carl Waldeyer.....M. at A. T. Burlem.....I. G. Joseph Freitas.....O. G.

As soon as the ceremonies were over all sat down to a bountiful spread prepared for the occasion by Mrs. M. Carnegie the manager of the Maui Hotel.

The public probably do not know that no intoxicants can not be served at any function given by the Knights of Pythias but this nevertheless is a fact and the rule is strictly observed. Not only is it strictly forbidden to serve any liquors in the castle hall but they are forbidden to serve or drink any intoxicants at any function given under the name of the order.

After the guests had partaken of all the oysters, chicken and other eatables they wished E. B. Carley in an appropriate speech called upon Past chancellor D. L. Meyer to respond to the Toast.

"The Supreme Lodge" We give herewith his address.

SUPREME LODGE.

Those two words we are obliged to divide into three Sections, FIRST. What is it? SECOND WHY IS IT? THIRD, what benefits are derived from the SUPREME BEING whether it is Lodge or anything else in existence?

First let us consider, what is SUPREME. You will find in Webster's Dictionary, that SUPREME is the Highest and greatest being; underwritten GOD. I shall not dwell upon the last word or last sentence rather, because this is not a religious gathering. The fact however remains that it is the highest and greatest being. This informs us what it is. The second question is, WHY IS IT? or in plain words what do we want of a SUPREME? I tell you my hearers, that the Steam plow might as well say to the one that repairs it STOP. I can go ahead now. dont hammer at me any more. The Sermon might say to the PREACHER Please dont use me so often, I have done my DUTY several times before. The IRON rod might as well dictate to the BLACKSMITH and say Please stop your painful operations, you have twisted me and hammered me while I was in good and hot humor, but please dont torture me any more when I am cold and hard hearted. The Mechanic, The Precher, they are the SUPREME over the Work they are performing. without them they would not exist. We could not exist without a Supreme Lodge. Our County could not exist without a SUPREME TRIBUNAL There must be a SUPREME, WE can not Deny it from the Knowledge we have, Every Knowledge is good and beneficial, and it is our duty and interest to know all there is knowable in everything as soon as we can. All the sciences are valuable and full of interest. So are the arts, the History of their developments is instructive and precious, the more MEN know of BIOLOGY, ANTHROPOLOGY, HISTORY, GEOLOGY, PHILOLOGY, ASTRONOMY, ARCHITECTURE, AGRICULTURE, CHEMISTRY, INDUSTRY, and all other sciences and arts the better it will be for the world, but it is not necessary for us ALL to have EXPERT knowledge—as a matter of fact it is an impossibility. It is sufficient for the few to be experts to teach and guide the Many,

THE SUPREME LODGE IS OUR GUIDE. WHY DO WE NEED A Supreme Lodge. WHY INDEED. Turn but for a moment your thoughts to the Mechanism of the boundless UNIVERSE, all moving in obedience to the LAW of GRAVITATION which LAW IS SUPREME then come back to the little earth and look at man in his nothingness, Boasting of his importance over everyboby else around him, that he alone was the sole object of creation, How utterly contemptible he appears, NATURE the Supreme, The JEHOVAH, The GOD, The whatever name you wish to call it is a Stupendous WHOLE, Our Earth but a speck, Man but an ATOM. all the living World Correlated, each ANIMAL, and PLANT giving and receiving support from all, then and only then, may we see, that each and every living thing is the equivalent of all others, man in reality no greater, no higher no more important in the Mechanical UNIVERSE than the DOGFLY, STAR-FISH, MOLUSK or other animate forms, all came into being by the same process, live in the same way, go out in like manner to live no more. Seen from this standpoint, mans duty to himself and all the world around him, may be summed up in the following three words, F. C. & B. FRIENDSHIP, CHARITY and BENEVOLENCE, and CHARITY being above all it at once becomes the SOLID foundation of our order, A foundation laid for us by the SUPREME LODGE, Do good to all living beings, no harm to anything that breathes whatever others may do, Let US as good PYTHIAN KNIGHTS ever be mindful of these rules while conducting ourselves in obedience to the SUPREME LODGE. Whilst we are here and we can, let us give all we can to the service of man in this world, to make the best possible use of this present world, is the best possible preparation for another. If all men were to combine their skill, efforts, and enthusiasm, to carry out these precepts the Happiness in this world would be beyond conception, and a better heaven could not be found and should not be desired.

I thank you for the Honor MR. TOAST MASTER.

The toast "The Supreme Statutes was responded to by C. Hansen, What he said was short but to the point.

Retring C. C; E. M. Keeney took up the subject of What benefits may be derived by the subordinate lodges of the Territory by the establishment of a Grand Lodge.

Past Chancellor R. A. Wadsworth dwelt at length upon the means of bringing our local lodges into closer relationship.

Past Chancellor T. M. Church of Amador Lodge California spoke of our Sister Lodges which was followed by "Our visiting brothers" by Past chancellor C. D. Lufkin follow, ing these were speeches on various subjects pertaining to the lodge by Mr. Dale; R. Mayfield of McKinley Lodge No. 8.

A. S. Prescott of " " " " W. G. Scott of Oahu No. 1 C. O. Jackson " " " " Mr. Watson " " " " Mr. Hennick, Maile Lodge No. 4. Enos Vincent of Danville Lodge of Indiana and H. M. Coke, C. Waldeyer and W. H. Crozier of Aloha Lodge No. 3.

The evening was a most enjoyable one and it was midnight before the guests discovered the lateness of the hour.

LONDON, Feb. 2.—The English policy holders in the Mutual Life of New York are demanding representations on the Home Board of the company and a deposit of securities in Great Britain equal the amount of policies called for. If demand is not granted the policy holders will bring the matter to the attention of Parliament.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 1.—The Transport Mead has been damaged by a fire. Three men were killed.

WASHINGTON, D. C. Feb. 1.—The President by proclamation has set aside public lands near Diamond Head Kupikipiki (probably Kahauiki) and Punch Bowl Hill for military purposes. The Senate authorized the construction of a steam tender for Light House service among the Hawaiian Islands.

COPENHAGEN, January 30.—The accession of Prince Frederick to the throne of Denmark, under the title of Frederick VIII., has been proclaimed.

This afternoon cables announced the death of the aged King Christian of Denmark, the "father of Kings," and perhaps the best beloved monarch in Europe. Of the Danish royal family, the Searchlight of January 13, said:

Christian IX.—The King of Denmark is the patriarch of European royalty. He is the head of a family of which no less than four members are seated upon thrones of the Old World, while the lines of his relationship extend into most of the more prominent courts.

A forbear of monarchs Christian is not himself the son of a king. In fact, his late wife, as Princess Louise of Hesse-Cassel, stood nearer to the throne than he did when they were married in 1842. He was the fourth son of Duke William of Schleswig-Holstein-Sonderburg-Glücksburg. His wife was a niece of King Christian VIII. When the matter of the Danish succession was under discussion by the Great Powers she renounced her rights in favor of her husband, who was made, by virtue of a treaty concluded in London on May, 1852, the next in line to Frederick VII., who at that time was reigning.

Christian IX. succeeded to the throne on the death of Frederick, November 15, 1863. He found it an uncomfortable seat because of gloomy auspices, and he would have abdicated but for the good cheer and advice of the queen, whose influence saved to Europe one of its most popular and respected monarchs.

Two of Christian's daughters were called to wear imperial crowns. Princess Marie Dagmar became the Empress Maria Feodorovna of Russia. She was widowed before her older sister, Alexandra, married to the Prince of Wales, became England's queen and India's empress.

Christian's first-born son, Prince Frederick, upon whose head the crown will rest when the old king passes away, has been preceded in the ranks of reigning royalties by his younger brother, and also by his own second son. Prince William, the second occupant of a throne several months before his father became the King of Denmark.

Two of Christian's grandsons are reigning monarchs. One of them, Nicholas II., wears the imperial crown of Russia. The other, known as Prince Charles until the voice of a free people called him to rule them, as Haakon VII., King of Norway.

Through his youngest son, Prince Waldemar, King Christian is connected with the House of Orleans which once ruled in France, that prince having married a daughter of the Duke of Chartres. The crown of Bulgaria was offered to Waldemar in 1886, but the prospect did not prove sufficiently attractive to allure him.

Besides being father-in-law to Edward VII. of England, King Christian is allied with the house of Hanover by the marriage of his third daughter, Princess Thyra, to the son of the ex-King of Hanover, who now bears the English title of Duke of Cumberland.

Through the marriage of King George of Greece, whose wife is the Grand Duchess Olga of Russia, the Danish monarch stands in the relationship of father-in-law to a member of the Romanoff family, which house is headed by his grandson, the Czar.

Of his grandchildren not already mentioned Princess Louisa, daughter of Crown Prince Frederick, is the wife of Prince Frederick George of Schaumburg-Lippe, and her sister, Princess Ingeborg, is the wife of Prince Charles, third son of King Oscar II. of Sweden.

Father—Queen Alexandra of England; Dowager Empress of Russia; King George I. of Greece.

Grandfather—Nicholas II. Czar of Russia; Haakon VII; King of Norway; Princess Louisa of Schaumburg-Lippe; Princess Ingeborg of Sweden.

Father-in-law—Edward VII; King of England; Olga, Queen of Greece; Duke of Cumberland, son of the ex-King of Hanover.
